2025 Behavioral Health Educational Series - SUD Peer Services, What They Are and Why They Matter

October 16, 2025

12:00 PM – 1:00 PM

Teams

Educational Objectives

After participating in this regularly scheduled series, participants should be able to:

- 1 How SUD peer services are complimentary but differ from self-help support and clinical care with a focus on the knowledge, skills, and values within their roles and functions.
- 2 Differentiate SUD peer staff from other care staff in respect to their scope of practice to ensure they are effective across the organizational structure
- 3 Identify three critical facets of substance use conditions and the benefits of long-term recovery to the individual, family and community.
